

OKLAHOMA INTESTATE SUCCESSION LAWS

FAMILY CONFIGURATION	OUTCOME
Spouse Only	Spouse gets the entire estate
Spouse and Parent(s) Only	Spouse gets all property acquired by joint industry of the husband and wife during coverture, plus an undivided 1/3 interest in the remaining estate. If only 1 Parent, the Parent receives an undivided 2/3 interest in the remaining estate. If both Parents living, each Parent receives an undivided ½ of the undivided 2/3 interest in the remaining estate. (und. Equal shares)
Spouse and Sibling(s)/Issue of Parents Only	Spouse gets all property acquired by the joint industry of the husband and wife during coverture, plus an undivided 1/3 interest in the remaining estate. If only 1 Sibling, the Sibling receives an undivided 2/3 interest in the remaining estate. If multiple Siblings, each Sibling receives an undivided equal share of the undivided 2/3 interest in the remaining estate.
Spouse and Issue of said Spouse Only	Spouse gets an und. ½ int. in all the property of the estate. If only child, said child receives an und. ½ int. in all the property of the estate. If multiple children, each issue receives an und. Equal share of the und. ½ int. in all the property of the estate. If there is a deceased child with issue, the issue of the deceased child receives an und. Equal share of the deceased child's equal share.

Spouse and Issue one or more of whom are not of said Spouse Only	Spouse gets and und. ½ int. in the property acquired by the joint industry of the husband and wife during coverture, plus an und. Equal part in the property (with each living child and lawful issue of deceased child) not acquired by the joint industry of the H/W during coverture. If only child, said child receives an und. ½ int. in all the property of the estate. If multiple children, each issue receives an und. Equal share of the und. ½ int. in all the property of the estate. If there is a deceased child with issue, the issue of the deceased child receives an und. Equal share of the deceased child's equal share.
Issue Only	Children get und. Equal shares of the entire estate. If there is a deceased child with issue of their own, the issue of the deceased child receive the deceased child's equal share in und. Equal shares.
Parent(s) Only	If one parent, said Parent gets the entire estate. If both parents, each Parent gets an und. Equal share of the entire estate.
Issue of Parents Only	If only one sibling, said Sibling receives the entire estate. If brothers and sisters, each receive an und. Equal share of the entire estate.
Grandparent(s) Only	Paternal GPs get an und. ½ int. in equal shares; Maternal GPs get an und. ½ int. in equal shares. If one Paternal and one Maternal GP, each receive an und. ½ interest. If only Paternal side living, Paternal receive entire estate. If only Maternal, Maternal receive entire estate.

Issue of Grandparents Only (Aunts and Uncles)	Issue of Paternal Grandparents get equal shares of the und. $\frac{1}{2}$ if they are of the same degree of kinship to the decedent. Issue of Maternal Grandparents get equal shares of the und. $\frac{1}{2}$ if they are on the same degree of kinship to the decedent. If in unequal degree, the more remote take by representation.
Next of Kin/ Cousins etc. Only	Take in equal degree
No Spouse, No Issue, No Parent, No Sibling, No Grandparent, No Issue of Grandparents, No Kindred	Entire estate escheats to the state for the support of the common schools.