Norman North High School senior receives Oklahoma Bankers Association scholarship

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. — Emma Schemmer is the recipient of the $1,000 scholarship from the Oklahoma Bankers Association. The scholarship is awarded to one incoming college freshman who has a parent, grandparent, sibling or spouse who is a Professional Member of the OBA. Schemmer is the daughter of OBA Professional Member Neil Schemmer, president at First American Bank, in Norman.

Schemmer is currently a senior at Norman North High School. Her activities include student council, National Honor Society, varsity cheer, Key Club, Rotary Interact Club, Teen Volunteers, Link Crew, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders, church youth deacon, Camp Barnabas counselor and paging for State Representative Scott Martin. Schemmer has received many honors and awards including Rotary Student of the Month, NCA Leadership award, NAA Athlete of the Month, Effective Leadership award, Team Contributor award and the Honor Roll for four years. Schemmer has maintained a 4.0 grade point average through high school.

Schemmer will be attending Oklahoma State University in Stillwater in the fall 2012. She intends to major in Nutritional Sciences.

The OBA represents approximately 230 banks across the state and serves as the primary advocate for the banking industry. It's also heavily involved in fraud training and prevention as well as legal and compliance services and communication for its member banks.
