Brief Description: I am a father, husband, son, and community banker. I have been a lifelong Oklahoma Resident. I truly believe in the word community and that without community banks our cities and state would not be what it is today nor will it be as strong in the future. I would like to serve as the Chair of the Emerging Leaders Division because I can bring a unique perspective to the young emerging bankers and the OBA Board. I am from northwestern Oklahoma and have a perspective of small-town communities as well as my career being primarily in the OKC metro, I understand the growing markets. In my youth I was a competitive athlete which helped me understand the concept of working as a team. From athletics I also learned how to be a leader. I was consistently a team captain and took that responsibility seriously. From that I have always enjoyed roles where I could mentor and teach. I think my small northwestern upbringing and life in the OKC Metro will make me well adapted to mentor young bankers from diverse areas of our state. As the OBA states they "Make Banks Better", I would like the opportunity to "Make Bankers Better".
