RE: Oklahoma Bankers Hall of Fame – Nomination of Chris Turner

Dear Nominating Committee:

It is my pleasure to recommend and support the nomination of Chris Turner for induction into the Oklahoma Bankers Association Hall of Fame. It has been my honor to work closely with Chris since my arrival at INTEGRIS Health in 2018. He has served on the INTEGRIS Health Board of Directors for many years and most recently as the Board Chair.

Not only is Chris a consummate and polished professional banker, but he also consistently exhibits the highest level of personal and professional integrity. His involvement on the INTEGRIS Health Board of Directors, and the many other Boards on which he serves, demonstrates his passion and concern for the Oklahoma City community. I believe his servant's heart is the mark of an outstanding banker that is in tune with his community.

In my opinion, there is no one more deserving of induction into the OBA's Hall of Fame than Chris Turner. Please do not hesitate to reach out to me by phone at (405) 949-3177 or by email at timothy.pehrson@integrisk.com should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Dear Oklahoma Bankers Association,

It is with great honor that I submit this letter of recommendation for Chris Turner, Chief Operations Officer of First National Bank & Trust Co. in Oklahoma City. I have known Chris both personally and professionally for most of our careers, and when I had the idea to buy a bank charter in 2009, there is no other choice than Chris that I would want to have partnered with.

Throughout our professional time together he has always displayed the ability to create thoughtful and insightful business dialogue and drive the organization forward. Chris is a 40+ year veteran banker and has served in various leadership roles. In addition to being a great banker and leader, Chris is also highly involved in the local community through Progress OKC, Oklahoma State Fair, and Integris Baptist Medical Center. Chris believes heavily in making the community better for future generations which is the pillar of a great community banker.

In reviewing the selection criteria and prior recipients of this recognition, I have confident that Chris Turner not only meets but exceeds in these qualities. I am honored to know Chris and have him as a business partner, fellow banker, and friend. It is my pleasure to nominate him for this award.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern,

What an honor and a pleasure to be asked to write this letter to serve as a reference toward the character and support of the nomination of Mr. Chris Turner for the Oklahoma Bankers Association Award. I have known Mr. Turner for more than thirty-five years, I first met him through my late wife who worked with Chris for many years. I have seen his ascension into his present role as a giant in the city, state, and national level of financial acumen. I served as a pastor for many years in Oklahoma and in the process of that work, served on the Red Cross of Central Oklahoma Board, The United Way of Central Oklahoma, and the Urban League of Central Oklahoma also. That service gave me opportunity to run into, be involved with and call upon him for financial and economic advice.

Chris' work in the banking business has been legendary and the results of his work are clearly visible from any perch of involvement in Oklahoma City. His lifelong investment in the economy of Oklahoma City has been immensely helpful. Most recently I had a firsthand, front row view of his involvement in providing a solution to a problem that has existed in my Senate District for decades. He was instrumental in bringing a full-service grocery store that helped in making a vast area of my district not so much of a "food desert." His personal investment is so greatly appreciated. I have also had the opportunity to work alongside Chris as a member of the same fraternity. I have served with him and under his leadership.

I have had an opportunity to meet and collaborate with many individuals who work in the banking industry, and I am hugely impressed with the work, contribution, commitment, and results of his lifetime of service. I believe that the Oklahoma Bankers Association Award would be a great testament to the banking industry and to the life changing work of Mr. Chris Turner.

Sincerely,
