

RANSOMWARE ALERT:

IMA Diligence Services (Div. of IMA Financial Group)

Feb 13, 2026

BACKGROUND

On January 27, 2026, the threat group Genesis claimed responsibility for a breach of IMA Diligence Services, a division of IMA Financial Group. The group has published approximately 700 GB of data allegedly exfiltrated from IMA file servers.

Review of the published archive index indicates the dataset contains audit documentation, financial records, operational workpapers, payroll and tax records, forecast models, strategic planning materials, and other confidential client files.

GENESIS Archive Tags Abo

IMA Diligence Services (A Division of IMA Financial Group)

2026-01-27 · 58min

About company:

This company will be disclosed in several days. A company that provide financial due diligence, tax diligence and transaction advisory for M&A.

Key Services Offered:

- Financial Due Diligence: In-depth review of financial health, performance, and value drivers for potential acquisitions.
- Quality of Earnings (QoE): Analyzing the sustainability of earnings, working capital, and key metrics.
- Lender Services: Field examinations and borrower diligence to assess collateral and borrowing base accuracy for lenders.
- M&A Support: Assisting with transaction structuring, risk mitigation, and post-merger integration.

RECOMMENDATIONS

If IMA Diligence Services is part of your vendor ecosystem, we recommend:

- Confirming whether your organization's data is included in the exposed dataset
- Assessing contractual, regulatory, and notification obligations
- Reviewing internal controls related to shared data rooms and third party diligence materials

We have obtained the master archive index and can assist with exposure validation and scoping upon request.